

The Blessed Trinity The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all. – 2Corinthians 13:14

The Revelation of the Trinity

Our awareness and knowledge of the Blessed Trinity comes from a reliable source: divine Revelation, God's own revealing of himself. The existence of the Trinity is hinted at in the Old Testament of the Bible and boldly proclaimed in the New Testament. Three events in the life of Jesus show us the Trinity: his conception, his Baptism, and his Transfiguration.

When the angel came to Mary to invite her to be the Mother of God. Mary understandably asked how it was possible. Gabriel replied: "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God" (Lk 1:35).

At Jesus' Baptism, the Heavens opened and the Spirit of God descended upon him accompanied by the voice of the Father saying: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased" (Mt 3:17; see also Mk 1:11; Lk 3:22).

During his public ministry, shortly before he began his final journey to Jerusalem, Jesus took the apostles Peter, James and John to a high mountain where he was transfigured before them. His appearance was transformed, his clothes became dazzling white, and with him appeared Moses and Elijah, symbolizing the Law and the Prophets – that, is the entire Old Testament. In the course of this astounding event – which, for a moment, revealed Jesus' own divine glory – a cloud, representing the Holy Spirit, overshadowed the three apostles, and a voice once again proclaimed: "This is my Son, my Chosen; Listen to him!" (Lk 9:35).

The Godhead of the Son is directly revealed when Jesus says: "I and the Father are one" (Jn 10:30). The Godhead of the Holy Spirit is similarly revealed when Peter rebukes a fellow Christian: "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit...? You have not lied to men but to God" (Acts 5:3-4). And Jesus himself reveals the relationship of the Father and the Spirit: "But when the Counselor comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father; even the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will bear witness to me" (Jn 15:26)

Finally, Jesus' commission to his apostles at the very end of the Gospel of Matthew reveals plainly that the three Persons belong to a single Godhead: "baptizing...in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Mt 28:19). Jesus uses the singular "name," not "names," to show us that all three Persons are one God.
